Croup can always be prevented by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. It is pleasant and safe to take and perfectly reliable. Price, 50 cents per bottle. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

What on Earth

is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

THE LALIES' LAUNDRYING MACHINE.—Patented in the United States and Canada. The first Laundrying Machine ever invented for family use having a Stationary Tub-rest, Patent Washer with Automatic Adjustment, a High Pressure Hard Rubber Wringer, Folding Clothes-rack, all combined in one patent, hence but one royalty. Sold only by parties owning territory. Manufactured by George & Tweedale, Constantine, Michigan. Doc. Benton, Sole Agent. a16*

Anybody wishing to get a shine today will do well to call on Bob Christy early.

Today being Decoration Day, no APPEAL will be issued from this office tomorrow.

The Public Building must be finished on or about the 22nd of June according to contract, and work will now go on every day in the week.

The Capitol Commissioners are thinking of seeding the walks around the building with grass for the accommodation of sore and big-footed people.

A couple of Italians engaged in a cutting scrape last evening at the Romeo Hotel, one of them was severely wounded. The man who did the cutting escaped arrest.

The Public Building is now nearly ready for the painters. It is to have three coats of oil, and now is the time for our local painters to put in their bids for the contract. Get in ahead of outside men.

George Shrieves, who has been attending school at Napa College Cal., returned this morning. He has grown several inches, and by hard study and application to his books has been able to skip a grade. He comes from the school with a fine record and will return after a two months' vacation. Napa College does its work well.

All persons wishing ice cream, strawberries, and a bountiful lunch on Decoration Day, will be accommodated at Odd Fellows' New Hall. The lunch will consist in part of tea, coffee, baked beans, brown bread, chicken, ham, tongue, salad, sand wiches, etc., including with either a plate of ice cream or strawberries, all for the sum of 50 cents for each adult, and 25 cents for children. For the benefit of the M. E. Church. The entertainment will continue throughout the afternoon and evening.

Cough! and Cough! and Cough!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Not a fit, but an expression of delight. "About a week ago," says a Los Angeles, Cal., druggist, "a Chinaman came in with a lame shoulder. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and guaranteed that it would cure him. He came in again last night, and as soon as he got inside the door, began to swing his arms over his head like an Indian club swinger. I thought the blamed fool had a fit, but he finally stopped long enough to say: 'Medicine velly fine, velly fine; ally same make me feel pretty good.'" Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for sprains, rheumatism, aches, pains or lame back. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

SENATOR JONES.

He Talks of Silver Politics and President Harrison.

When Senator Jones passed through Reno he was interviewed by a Gazette reporter and said, in answer to an interrogatory as to the truth of the Administration's hostility to silver, as indicated in a recent press dispatch to the Gazette, that Secretary Windom and the entire Eastern press showed a dense ignorance on the subject, but he was convinced that the silver men had a majority in both branches of Congress, and that they would be able to pass a silver bill at the next session. He said, too, that he did not think the President would veto any measure that Congress would pass. He said that he had a long talk with Secretary Windom the day before he left Washington regarding the opening of the Mint at Carson, and met with encouragement; that he was going below in a few days and would see Senator Stewart, and that they would send a joint letter, written in pure English, noting courtly, setting forth a true statement of facts, and thought that the Mint would be coining money in the near future. The Senator said that he had quite an interesting interview with President Harrison regarding Pacific Coast appointments, in which the President intimated that he had treated the Pacific Coast pretty well.

"What," asked the Senator, "have you done for the Pacific States?" "I have appointed Swift Minister to Japan," replied the President. "A. I. of which is highly appreciated by both Swift and Mrs. Swift," replied the Senator, "and all it amounts to is that you have deprived the Pacific Coast of one good Republican; but, so far as the people go, they don't care a continental for the appointment; they want some one appointed who is directly interested in our affairs at home."

The Senator intends visiting a few days in Gold Hill, and then going below.

WHO STOLE THE BULLION?—With regard to C. W. Ladd, recently acquitted in Eureka for stealing a bar of bullion from the Eureka Con., the Sentinel says:

The people of Eureka are now asking "Who stole the bullion?"—Tuscarora Review.

It is no longer an open question. We know.

Ladd does not deny that he appropriated Eureka Con. bullion, but claims that he was only a small factor in the business. If this is so, who were his confederates?

Ladd, while in his "cups" in a Main street saloon, a few days ago, said some very damaging things about some people in this community.

Ladd says Hank Donnelly is the only honest man in the outfit. Who are the outfit?

They—Ladd and Grant—skipped by the light of the moon by the "backboard route."

NO COMPLAINING WITNESS.—The case of Tibbets, who attempted to kill Derby on the Pyramid Lake Reservation, was called in the U. S. District Court yesterday. The jury were all there, but no complaining witness. The Court learned that the complaining witness was in Storey county, and after reading the U. S. Marshal a sharp lecture for neglecting his duty he continued the case.

THE BOOMERANG.

It Comes Back and Smites Us.

Yesterday the editor of the APPEAL was leaning over the counter of the Bullion Bank and ordering 100 shares of Scorpion, when a voice just behind said:

"Ho! Ho!" The editor was transfixed with horror, for it was none other than the voice of Judge Belknap, who had just come in.

He slapped the editor on the shoulder with grim satisfaction, and said in exultant tones:

"So you are the man who preaches on the evils of stock gambling." The unfortunate scribe almost sank through the floor with mortification.

"Only a little dab for a flyer, Judge, only a little dab."

He only laughed a loud laugh and looked at the writer in a most taunting way.

"Of course," remarked the journalist, bracing up against the ill-mannered laughter of the Bank clerks, "I do occasionally take in a little wad of stock, but not as a regular thing. My sermon against the evils of gambling was against habitual gambling in stocks. See?"

"Oh, yes, we all see," shouted the crowd, "we see you just as you are. Get out of here; and if the city is issuing a preacher's license for you it had better quit."

The editor left the Bank rather than listen to the flippancy remarks of the heathens who seem to labor under the impression that a man must practice what he preaches. They are dead off, however, and everybody knows it.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WORTH.

A Decision that Causes the Loss of Nearly a Million Acres of Land.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—In the United States District Court this afternoon Judge Erskine M. Ross overruled the demurrer of the defendant in the case of the United States against the Southern Pacific Company. This case has been pending several years, and the decision is, perhaps, one of the most important that has been handed down by a United States Judge on the Pacific Coast for many years. The ownership of over 800,000 acres of land is involved. The lands in question are claimed and a good many acres have been patented by the railroad company under their grant. The Government contended that the lands in dispute were included in confirmed Mexican grants or in the Atlantic and Pacific grant, which are both prior. The defendant company in its brief, denied all the material allegations of the Government. Judge Ross' decision overruling the demurrer of the railroad company is very lengthy.

In speaking of the decision, United States Attorney Davis said: "The railroad company has already sold a good portion of the land to innocent purchasers, but by the law under which suit was commenced they will be protected in their rights. They will be enabled, if the Supreme Court affirms the decision, to patent the lands they have bought from the railroad company direct from the Government, and the Government will in turn bring suit against the railroad company for the purchase price of the land." It is understood that the Southern Pacific will take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.
